

MULTI-POSITION MRI

STAND-UP MRI OF EAST ELMHURST, P.C.

Jackson Heights Shopping Center
75-33 31st Avenue • East Elmhurst, NY 11370
Phone: 718.779.2825 • Fax: 718.779.5349

Accredited by the American College of Radiology

JOSE GARCIA SANTANA*N10127703-EE*Report Date: 09/13/2022*DOB: 12/27/1975*Exam Date: 09/12/2022*MOHAN TRIPATHI, MD*102-31 JAMAICA AVE*RICHMOND HILL, NY 11418*MAGNETIC RESONANCE IMAGING OF THE RIGHT KNEE*TECHNIQUE: Multiplanar, multisequential MRI was performed in the 20-degree tilt position.HISTORY: Patient complains of right knee pain with difficulty walking. Status post MVA 08/31/2022.INTERPRETATION: Posterior cruciate ligament is intact. Anterior cruciate ligament mucoid change with periligamentous edema. Traction edema and 2 mm cyst in the femur.

Medial collateral ligament is intact. Lateral complex is intact. Popliteus is intact with no muscle tear.

Medial meniscus horizontal tear of posterior horn extending to the inferior articular surface at the free edge and capsular margin with extension to the body. 10 mm septated meniscal cyst posterior medial joint line. Cartilage over the medial joint is preserved.

Lateral meniscus is intact. Cartilage over the lateral joint is preserved.

Trochlear cartilage is intact. Patellar cartilage is intact.

Lateral subluxation. Retinacula intact. Patellar tendinopathy. Quadriceps tendinopathy and fraying.

Joint effusion. Hamstring and gastrocnemius tendinopathy with soft tissue edema. No muscle tear. No popliteal cyst. No fracture.

IMPRESSION:

- Medial meniscal tear with 10 mm meniscal cyst.

JOSE GARCIA SANTANA

N10127703

Exam Date:

09/12/2022

Page 2 of 2
MRI OF THE RIGHT KNEE

- Patella alta. Quadriceps tendinopathy and insertional fraying.

Thank you for referring your patient to us for evaluation.

Sincerely,

Mark J. Decker M.D. D.A.B.R.
Musculoskeletal and Spine Radiologist
MD/rt2